

HEADLINERS

Welcome to Headliners

Welcome to Headliners

Headliners UK is a charity which inspires and encourages the personal development of young people through journalism.

Young people are trained to research and produce stories on issues important to them for publication and broadcast in national and local newspapers, magazines, television, radio and online.

Read our brochure, watch the showreel and supporters video.

What we do

What we do Details about the purpose of Headliners, and how we make it happen.

Commissioning from us Information for journalists interested in commissioning work from us.

The story so far We launched as Children's Express in 1994, and since then we've produced over 1,200 stories for broadcast and publication.

Latest Press Releases Get information on what we have been up to alongside producing news stories.

Related Links

Other useful websites Details of some other youth journalism projects, and other relevant websites.

Our brochure

Find out more about Headliners by reading our brochure that explains more about us. Read our annual report

- Belfast
- Foyle
- London

We've got a three-year development plan that includes expanding in to other parts of the UK.

Our young people

Since we started in 1994, over 2,500 young people have been members of Headliners, or been involved in our outreach programmes. Read the profiles of four of them, as they explain why Headliners means so much to them.

Archive

We started as Children's Express in 1994. Have a look at some of the highlights of the last 12 years.

©2010 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families