

What's Up?

What's Up is one of our outreach projects in partnership with Hackney Children's Fund.

What's Up is a regular magazine produced by young people in Hackney.

The young people are selected from a number of different out-of-school projects, aged five to 13). As with all our projects, we particularly seek to work with young people at risk of isolation or exclusion.

The aims of the project are very similar to that of Loud 'n' Clear based in neighbouring Islington.
