

Awards and recognition

Find out what awards we have won and other ways that we have been recognised for what we do.

New Statesman New Media Awards 2007

Headliners has been nominated for two categories in this years New Statesman New Media Awards. This is in recognition of the work we have been doing to use new media to raise the voice of young people and allow them to participate in democratic debate.

Green Mark Award Level 1

Headliners was awarded Green Mark Level 1 in November 2006 through meeting the audited requirements of the scheme. These requirements include the implementation of a working environmental policy, demonstration of management commitment, nomination of an environmental champion, raising environmental awareness and meeting key pieces of environmental legislation. We have also demonstrated that they have taken adequate steps to minimise the overall environmental impact of their business activities.

Green Mark is a 3-stage award scheme, developed and delivered by the London Environment Centre.

Other awards

1995

- IBM Community Connections Award

1996

- Chairman's Special Commendation, British Press Awards
- Esm e Fairbairn Youth Development Award
- Prince's Trust Study Support Award

1997, 1998, 1999

- English-Speaking Union International Exchange Award

2006

- Sky Young Journalist of the Year
- Best Writing Award in the British Library Front Page awards

Related Links:

More from Headliners

The story so far We launched as Children's Express in 1994, and since then we've produced over 1,200 stories for broadcast and publication.

Twelve years of Headliners

Built on OneStopCMS

©2008 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families