Can we interview you?

Headliners is a unique charity looking to raise the voice of young people. If you are a young person, or you work with young people, and you've got a story to tell - we want to speak to you.

At Headliners we're always looking for people to interview about the stories we report on.

We're especially interested to hear from young people who don't get heard in the media and have something they want to say. Whether you are a teenage parent, from a minority group or you are bothered about what is going on in the world around you - we need case studies from across the UK (and sometimes beyond).

Unlike other media organisations; we're primarily concerned about doing what's right for young people. So you will be interviewed by other young people who are interested and bothered about what you have to say. We'll never pass your details onto journalist from other organisations.

If you'd be interested in being interview by our young people, please get in touch using the details below. We'll ask you to sign a media release form; which we may need your parents to sign as well.

Please contact Oliver Benson or call him on 020 7833 2577 if you would be interested in being interviewed by young people as part of a story.
