

FORMERLY KNOWN AS CHILDREN'S EXPRESS

Family & relationships

Showing items 1 - 15 of 171

< Previous Next >

- Gone but not Forgotten Losing someone close to you is never easy, but it always helps if you don't have to suffer alone. Here, the young people of Sidcup Youth Centre describe the tragic events of summer 2007, and how they came together to support each other through difficult times. 11 March 2008
- "My experience of coming to the UK" Recent immigrant Emmanuel Esteve arrived in the UK from Togo unable to speak any English. Three months later, he tells Headliners about his experience. 15 February 2008
- Teenage mums in Jamaica overcome prejudice 16-year-old Eshe Nelson from Reading went to Jamaica with Unicef to see how children and young people were tackling the issue of sexual health in the country and why young mothers in Jamaica are getting help where their own education system is failing them. 14 January 2008
- Shoot The Reality 12 December 2007
- Have the Youth Lost Faith? Why are some young people turning their back on God and the religion they were born into? Young reporters from Headliners investigate why a growing number of young people seem to be losing faith. 11 December 2007
- The Spirit of History at Sutton House Hackney's oldest house is a place of tall tales and hands-on history. Headliners reporters put on their tabards and gowns and investigate. 4 December 2007
- 'Looking for JJ' Still Looking for Substance This play at London's Unicorn Theatre is described as having 'an edge, fast-paced plot for today's younger generation' - but young reviewers from Headliners found the content doesn't match up to the hype. 27 November 2007
- Shoot the Reality: Isolation Ruth Smyth looks at the problems of young people feeling isolated and lonely. 20 October 2007
- Introduction to Shoot The Reality Eight young people from Belfast produced a series of short films about life in Northern Ireland. 20 October 2007
- Shoot the Reality: Domestic Violence Headliners reporter Joe Smyth looks at how the issue of domestic violence affects young people. 20 October 2007
- Playing outside is right up 'our' street Headliners reporter Eabha Doherty joins in the fun as young and old play all day around Derry's walls 11 October 2007
- Believe in Me Awards Young people who have been in care got the opportunity to say thanks to some of the adults who helped them. Headliners reporters went to hear their amazing stories. 1 August 2007
- Street Kid Ekuah-Rose reviews a powerful book about a child who ended up living rough on the streets of Johannesburg at the age of just 12. 15 June 2007
- Changes How does it feel when a young person moves away from the home and area where they've lived throughout their life Rochelle Ogarro tells all... 29 May 2007
- How Coram came to care Celebrating the work of Coram, Harriet Breen went to find out the history of the Coram Centre and its links with children and young people of long ago. 29 May 2007

Showing items 1 - 15 of 171

< Previous Next >

Built on OneStopCMS

©2008 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families