

Bridging the gap

94-year-old extols the virtue of young people

As part of an intergenerational project reporters at Headliners Foyle interviewed older people in residential homes in Foyle.

They asked them about their views on and fears of young people.

This piece of audio is from the eldest of the interviewees Mr James Sharkey (94). The interviewer is Headliners Foyle reporter Paul Gillen (17).

Open this audio in Windows Media Player

0 comments

- Add a comment to this page

Built on Cubik

©2012 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families