

HIV Campaign Steps Out On The Dance Floor

Headliners reporters talk to Dance4Life about its fight to push back HIV and AIDS and on lowering the age of sex education in schools.

About this story

This film was produced by Brendan Osborne, 11, Chelsea Phillips, 15, Shameka Dover, 12, Thuva Thangeswaran, 11, Engy Ellaitly, 12, Ikra Eli, 12, Jasin Fejzulahi, 12, and Levarta Elezi, 12.

0 comments

- Add a comment to this page

Related Links

More from Headliners

Living with the stigma of HIV in Jamaica 16-year-old Headliners member Eshe from Berkshire discovers the real experience of young people infected with HIV in Jamaica.

Eshe's diary day 3: Prejudice and stigma After spending a day among young people affected by HIV/AIDS, 15-year-old Eshe saw the real effects of the stigma attached to the illness.

Positive Lives - Concern Worldwide Exhibition Concern's Positive Lives photography exhibition documents the lives of people with HIV and Aids

Where are the Kids? Thousands of people are in attendance at the International AIDS Conference in Toronto but not many of them are children and young people. Why should this be the case?

From the rest of the web

Dance4Life Dance4Life involves young people in the pushing back of HIV and AIDS through our school tours, events and education empowerment.

Built on Cubik

©2012 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families