

HEADLINERS

2010

A Healthier Alternative

With so many young people eating chicken and chips or going to chain restaurants and takeaways, Headliners reporters decided to check out the local, unique and culturally diverse takeaways in Hackney.

A Louder Voice 3

Welcome to the third and last edition of A Louder Voice showcasing the work of young people from Headliners (UK)

A Second Chance: A Report on the Effects of Drugs

As the drug mephedrone hit the headlines due to several deaths of young people, a group of young people from Rathbone, Gateshead, set out to find out more about the effects of this 'legal high'. They talk to a drugs and alcohol advice service and two ex-users to learn more about the effects that drugs can have on people's lives.

A Teenage Girl In London

Headliners Eritrean reporters create a radio play on the life of a teenage girl living in London.

Abortions - What's your view?

Headliners journalists explore the two sides of the abortion debate; pro-life versus pro-choice. But what's your view?

Acceptance all round

Act For Change Radio

Homophobia and Territorial Battles: The debates covered when Act for Change's teamed up with Headliners.

Afrika Hot!

Rising Rap star Afrikan Boy talks to Headliners reporters after a performance in East London.

And the winner is...

Headliners journalists report on the election of Landry Adelard as Tower Hamlets Young Mayor 2010

Andreya Triana Profile

Brighton based Soul musician, Andreya Triana, has been tipped as a talent to look out for in 2010. Read on as she sits down for a chat with Headliners reporters.

Apples - A Very Different Eden

Headliners journalists in the North East went to check out the Northern Stage's latest offering, 'Apples'. Based on the novel by Richard Milward, this gritty drama depicts the harsh realities of life for youths living on a Northern council estate. Watch the film to hear from those involved in the production.

Are Prisons Too Soft?

Headliners reporters in Halifax, West Yorkshire investigate whether prison conditions are too soft or whether they could be stricter.

Ballet A Hit With Deaf Young People

Reporters from Thorn Park School for the Deaf in Bradford report on their first experiences of live ballet.

Battle over Baby-faced Boozers

Binge drinking among teens is an issue that remains at the top of the political agenda. A group of young people in Newcastle investigate whether government plans to tackle the problem are the right approach.

BBC Olympics Open Day

Tuesday 27th July 2010 was exactly 2 years to go until the 2012 Olympic games!

Bollywood in Belfast

A group of secondary school students reopen Belfast City Hall with their take on Bollywood dance.

Britain's Barack?

What do people on the streets of Hackney think of Diane Abbott's bid to become leader of the Labour Party? Gyasi Rogers, 13, finds out.

Brothers Love

Headliners reporters speak to a brother worried for his sibling's life.

Building bridges

Bullying

Having experienced bullying themselves, young journalists from Erdington, Birmingham, ask what other young people would do if they were bullied.

Camden Youth in Action Showcase

Headliners reports on the Camden Youth in Action film showcase, held on 30th March 2010 in London.

Climate Change: Are You Hearing It?

In the run up to the Climate Change summit in Copenhagen, residents of Doncaster, one of the areas worst affected by the floods of 2007, came face to face with Climate Change Secretary Ed Miliband. Headliners made this report.

Confidentiality Is Key

Do parents have a right to know if their teenage daughter is pregnant and considering abortion? Headliners reporters look at both sides of the argument.

Crackdown on racist chat

CRB's and Second Chances

Cut It Out: March Against Tuition Fees

As students and lecturers across the country continue to protest against the Coalition Government's proposed cuts on education, Headliners reporters get to the heart of the demonstrations in Newcastle. In this, the first in a series of reports entitled 'Cut It Out', our young journalists follow the march through the city and speak to the protesters.

Election 2010: The Battle for Leeds West

Reporters from BARCA in Bramley, West Leeds, met some of the candidates standing in the 2010 General Election to find out what they will do for the public.

Election 2010: Votes at 16

Should the voting age be lowered to 16? Headliners reporters debate the arguments for and against changing the voting age and find out what the three main political parties think about it.

Escape Magazine

Escape is a mental health teen magazine that was produced by Headliners, the Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust and the Priory School

Exercising the right to come out

Facing up to Prejudice

FC Bankruptcy

Football is loved and played in hundreds of countries around the world. But sadly Football is being ruined by greed and unnecessary money spending; millions of pounds are spent on footballers and manager's wages, along with the building and up keep of stadiums, slowly resulting in clubs getting into unimaginable debts. If this continues will it be the end of professional football as we know it?

Fight for the Right

What do people know about disability rights? The Tower Times reporters investigate how discrimination affects the lives of disabled young people, to bring about awareness on how our rights are overlooked.

Football Scout Interview

Four Lions Review

Get Your Wellies On!

Hello to all you music fans! Summer is fast approaching and that means music festivals! If you are a first time goer, you need to know the safest and easiest way to buy tickets, the basics to take, how to stay safe and most importantly, WHO is performing.

Got It Easy

With half a million immigrants coming to the UK every year, the dynamics of the nations young people is changing. How do the native young people of this country compare to the new? Do UK kids have it easy compared to the rest of the world?

Groundwork - Teenage Pregnancies

Groundwork's Bexley Challenge Group investigate issues surrounding teenage pregnancies in Bexleyheath and what support is available for young parents.

Headliners Residential 2010

Members dodge ducks, build rafts and discuss conflict resolution whilst on residential.

Homophobic crime decline

How Safe are Taxis for Young People

Ever thought about using cabs? As a young person, what exactly should you look out for to ensure your personal safety? Six reporters from Bexleyheath School investigate.

How Safe Is Hackney?

The shooting of talented Hackney schoolgirl Agnes Sina-Inakoku made national headlines. Headliners reporter and Hackney resident Kamil Boriel, 14, takes to the streets of Hackney to find out how safe people in the area feel.

How would you like it?

Headliners reporter Esther Hughes, 8, has her say on children in Detention Centres and medical justice

Image Under Pressure

Beauty. How far will you go to achieve it? Headliners journalists in the North East are on a mission to find out just how much pressure young people are under to look good. But is it all worth it?

Injecting the truth

Local GP dispels the myth surrounding the controversial cervical cancer vaccine

Injecting the truth

Inside Identity

Is it OK to Touch?

A boy strokes a girl's bum. She giggles. Does she like it or is it a nervous giggle? What do you think? Sexual bullying is a pressing issue and it occurs in all levels of society, and this includes schools. Can education stop this? Just what do we define as 'sexual bullying' and where do we draw the line?

Is sexting fun or fundamentally damaging

Is Smoking Sheesha More Harmful than Cigarettes?

Jaya says 'Look out for your mates'

Headliners reporters land an interview with star-in-making Jaya and talk to her about her part in TFL's 'Look Out For Your Mates' Campaign, which she will be heavily promoting across the Capital this summer.

Just say hello

KCP Radio Shows

Headliners teamed up with the Kings Corner Project in Islington to work with 8 young people from the local area to look at issues around relationships, gender and identity.

Life's A Breeze

Headliners reporters in South Leeds check out what's at Breeze On Tour in Cross Flatts Park.

Loud 'N' Clear Magazine Issue 12

Loud 'N' Clear Magazine is produced by Headliners Islington reporters. The stories maybe from young people living in borough, but the issues are nationwide, if not the world.

Click and flick through the pages to find out what are the issues affecting young people, and their view on the world.

Makatons Live at Mencap

The Makatons steal the show at LiveNet in Belfast. Headliners sneaks backstage to get the low down on their musical influences.

Music and Unity

A group of reporters from East London investigate the impact that music has on multi-cultural Britain. Listen to interviews with up and coming grime artists GHETTS, Mz. Bratt and Sharky Major.

My day as.... "MISS DIRECTOR" ...

Friday 12th November 2010 was Takeover Day where young people get the chance to takeover a job of someone in a senior position in business, government or the charity sector. Reema Begum, 15, took over the job of Fiona Wyton, Director of Headliners, for the day. Here's her story.

My Eating Disorder

It's not an attention-seeking phase, it's a condition that can last a lifetime if not treated early.

Olympic Mascots: Where Did It All Go Wrong?

Olympic Mascots super futuristic or absolutely ridiculous? Headliners reporters from the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea's Futureversity took to the streets to find out...

Pakistan Floods: Should More Be Done?

Headliners reporters interviewed the members of the public from the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea about the Pakistan Floods - comparing the media coverage to the Haiti earthquake.

Pause Magazine Summer 2010

Pause is an exciting new magazine produced by young people from East London. Offering a mixture of entertainment and advice alongside investigations into hard hitting issues, Pause showcases the talent of Headliners young journalists.

Protestant future friend or foe

Rap, Reality & Rathbone

Young people from the Rathbone training centre in East London investigate the influence that Rap music has on society.

Sectarianism hasn't gone away

Should Teachers Be Allowed To Use Force Against Pupils?

Signed Sealed Delivered

International hip-hop star Sway talks to Headliners reporters.

Skin Deep

Following Black History month, a group of young journalists wanted to find out the opinions of peers and elders in their community on the issue of skin bleaching.

Springhill has its say on sectarianism

Stand Up and be Counted

Grime star Ghetts is reaching out to people all over the nation to take part in the 2011 census. Headliners met up with him at a press conference at the Brady Arts Centre, Whitechapel to find out more.

Stars - A Young Traveller Lifestyle Magazine

We hope you like our fun magazine giving you an insight into our traveller lifestyle - yes we do like our weddings and we are mad fans of Justin Bieber! It was a joint project with Headliners and the London Gypsy and Traveller Unit. So enjoy!!

Stay clear of sexual relationships

The fear factor

The fear factor

The Hood Is Down

Photography exhibition in Belfast challenges the stereotyping of young people.

The Legend That Keeps On Giving

Martin Luther King was a civil rights campaigner whose motivational speeches helped change the world forever. He was assassinated more than 50 years ago, which begs the question; why is he still such an important figure in today's society?

The mystery of history

The problem with peace

The right to choose

Headliners Journalists Ola Adeniran and Amrita Kaur-Landa delve into the relationship between abortion and young people.

The School "Pinchable"

Are the corridors of London's schools a thieves delight? Headliners reports from Islington Arts and Media School investigate whether stealing in schools really is a problem.

Thinking seriously about the youth service

Headliners talks to youth service representatives in Northern Ireland about their views on the current provision for young people.

Third bridge for derry

Times they are a-changing

Treat 'Em Like Dogs

Headliners journalists put the media and the police on the spot, investigating the role they both play in creating and promoting negative stereotypes of young people.

Trust the Teens - An Intergenerational Project

Headliners journalists spent a week with members of Age UK in an attempt to bridge the gap between the generations. But what did the older gang make of our young reporters...

Trust the Teens - Team Challenge

Headliners journalists in Sunderland set out to challenge the negative perceptions of young people today

Underage Pregnancy

Is underage pregnancy still an issue? What is the public's opinion? What advice do abortion clinics offer? Young journalists from Castle Vale, Birmingham, investigate.

Violence and Computer Games

With the recent release of Red Dead Redemption, realistic and violent computer games and age restrictions are once again gaining plenty of media coverage. Headliners reporter, Malik Fields, investigates the contentious issue.

Volunteering For Stardom

On the 3rd February 2010, the Vinspired Lake of Stars Malawi Music Festival came to the Rich Mix venue in East London with a night of music from various genres. It was a full house of soul and African vibes and culture. Headliners reporters went along to take in the attractions and interview some of the evening's performers.

War: A Young Man's Game

Headliners journalist Sonti Ramirez, 19, speaks to Sir Richard Dannatt, the former head of the British Army, about the deaths of young soldiers in Afghanistan and the radicalisation of young Muslims in Britain.

Who Do You Trust?

Who would you trust? A young person in a hoodie or another wearing a smart shirt - a group of young journalists from west London conducted an experiment on stereotypes and this is what they found out...

World Cup Top of the Pops

Who has the best national anthem in the World Cup 2010?

As the world's best players fight it out in South Africa, who has the best anthem to sing before kick off? Headliners pop pickers Joseph, Saul, Timothy, Haythan and Shai give us their thoughts...

Your issues too

Built on Cubik
©2012 Headliners

Registered Charity Number 1043300. Supported by the Department for Children, Schools and Families